

MADRID MUSEUM

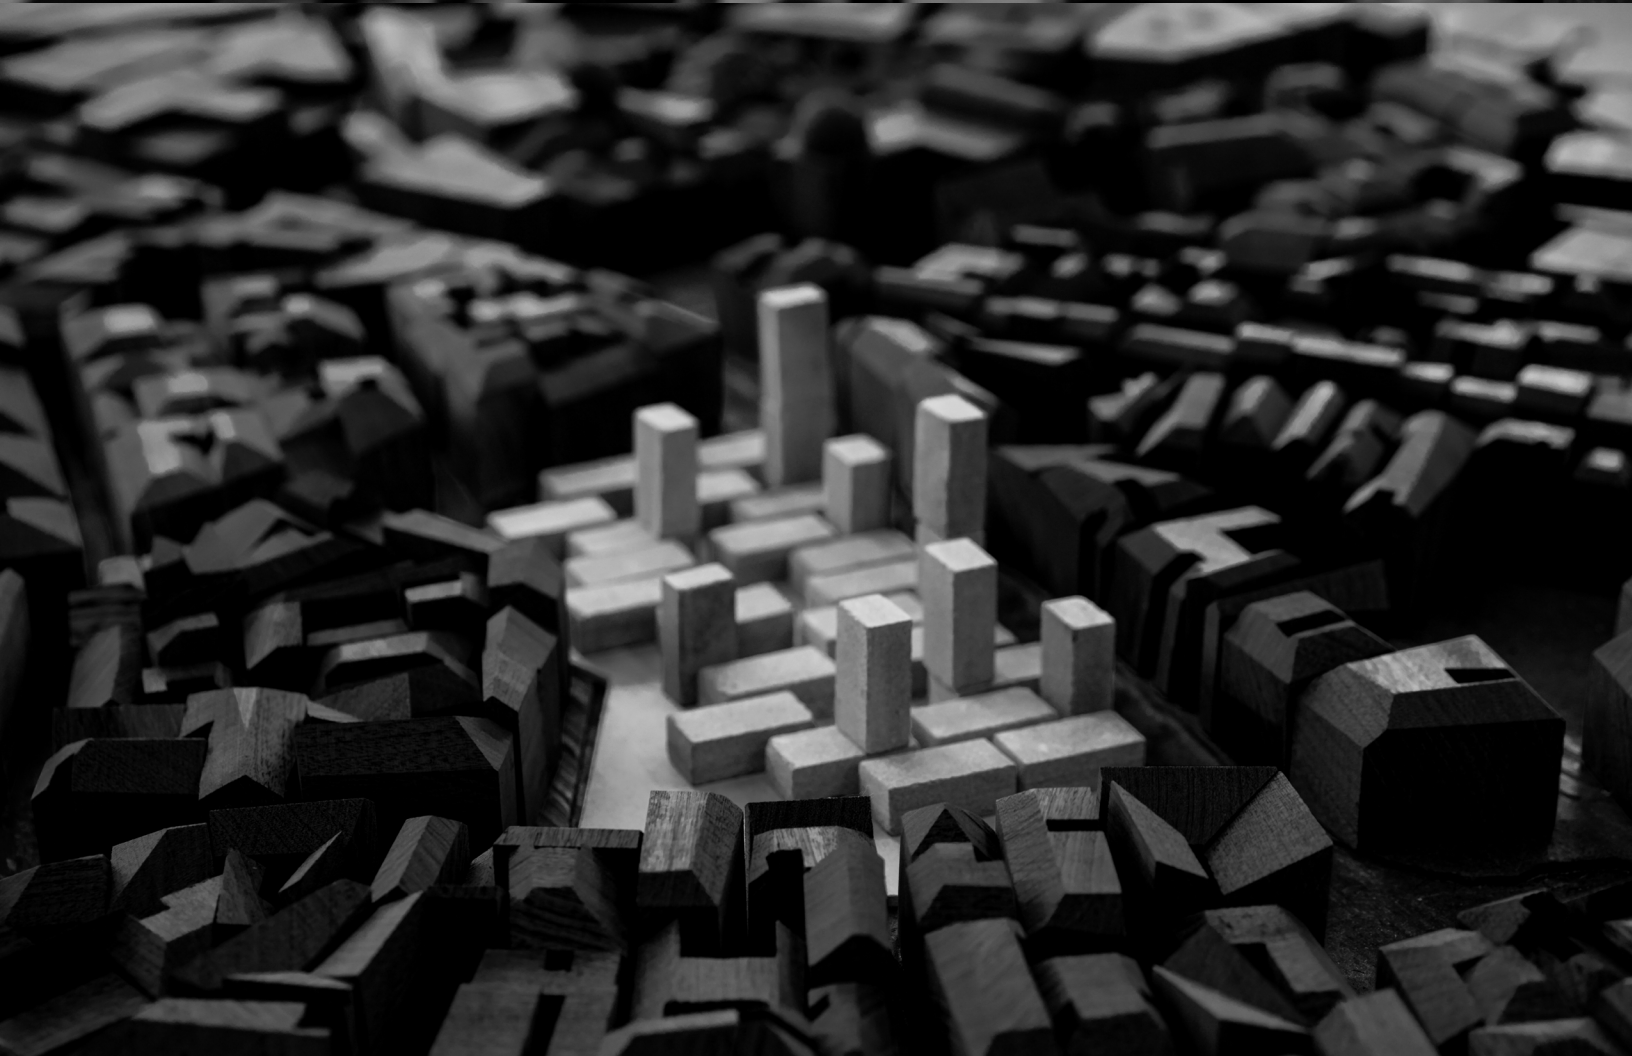

The Madrid Light Museum is conveniently located in the heart of Madrid's ancient urban fabric. Designed to capture light both above and below street level, the museum maximizes the usable area of the site while still allowing for key circulation through the plaza for the public without the need to purchase a ticket. This challenging circulation leads to extreme changes in elevation that naturally lend themselves to spectacular lighting conditions and a wide variety of different spaces.

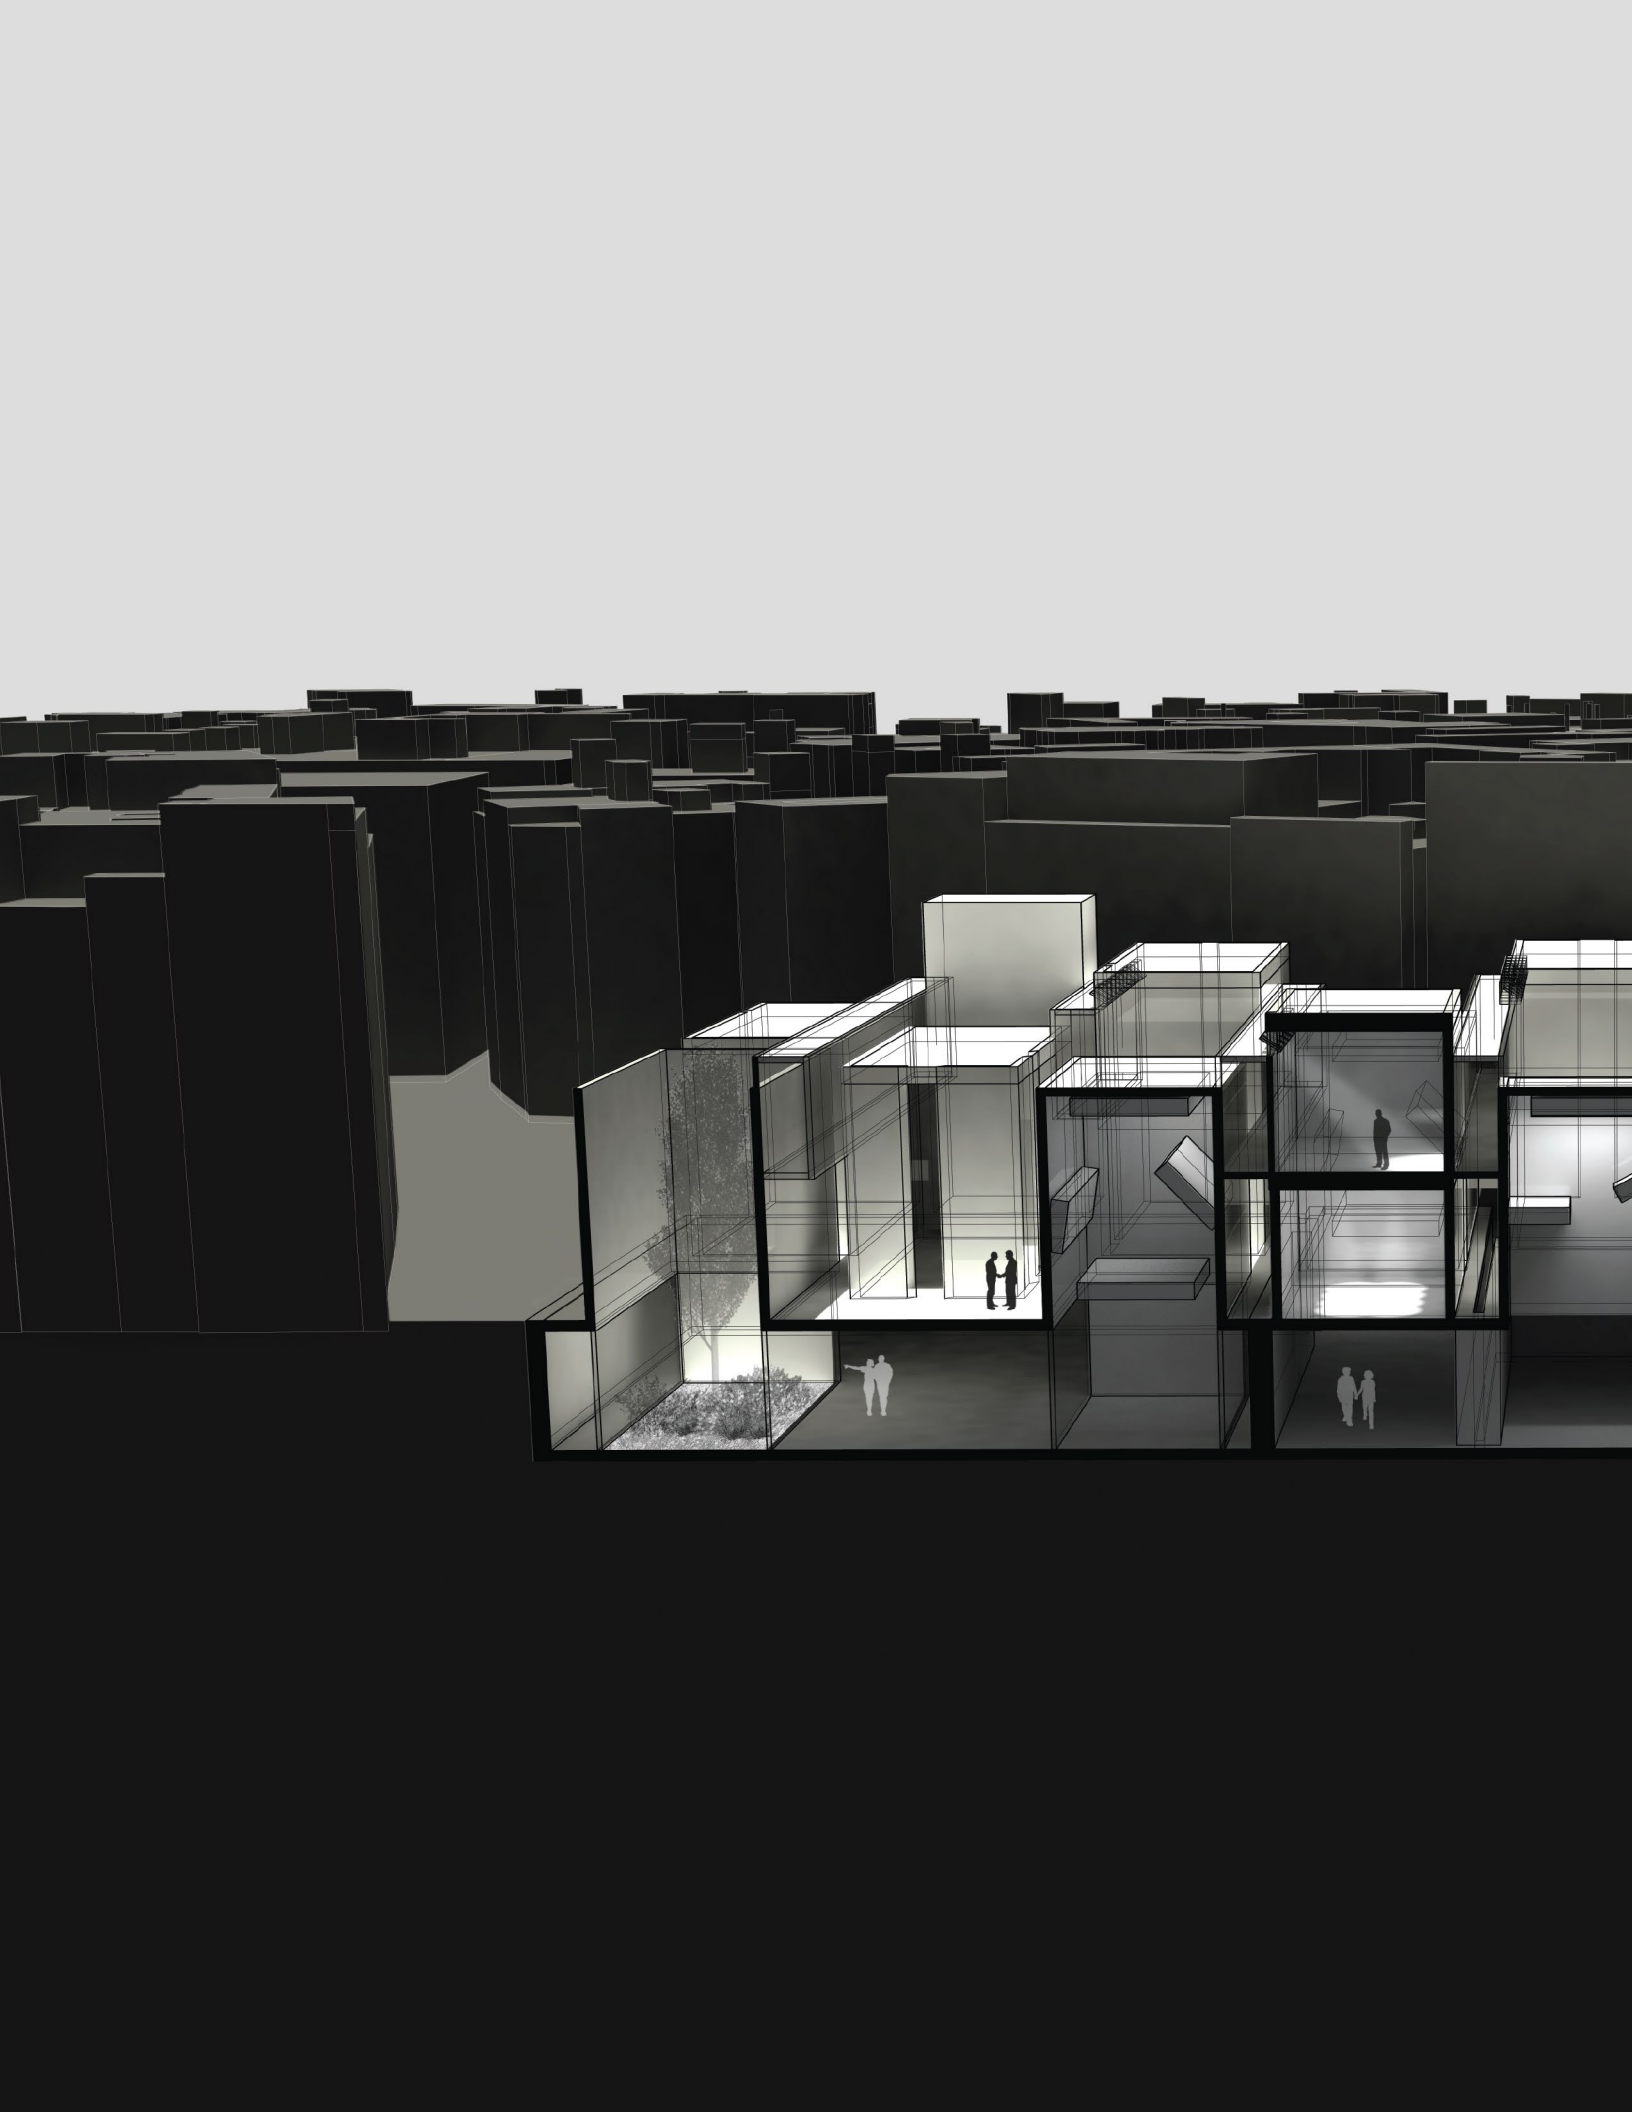

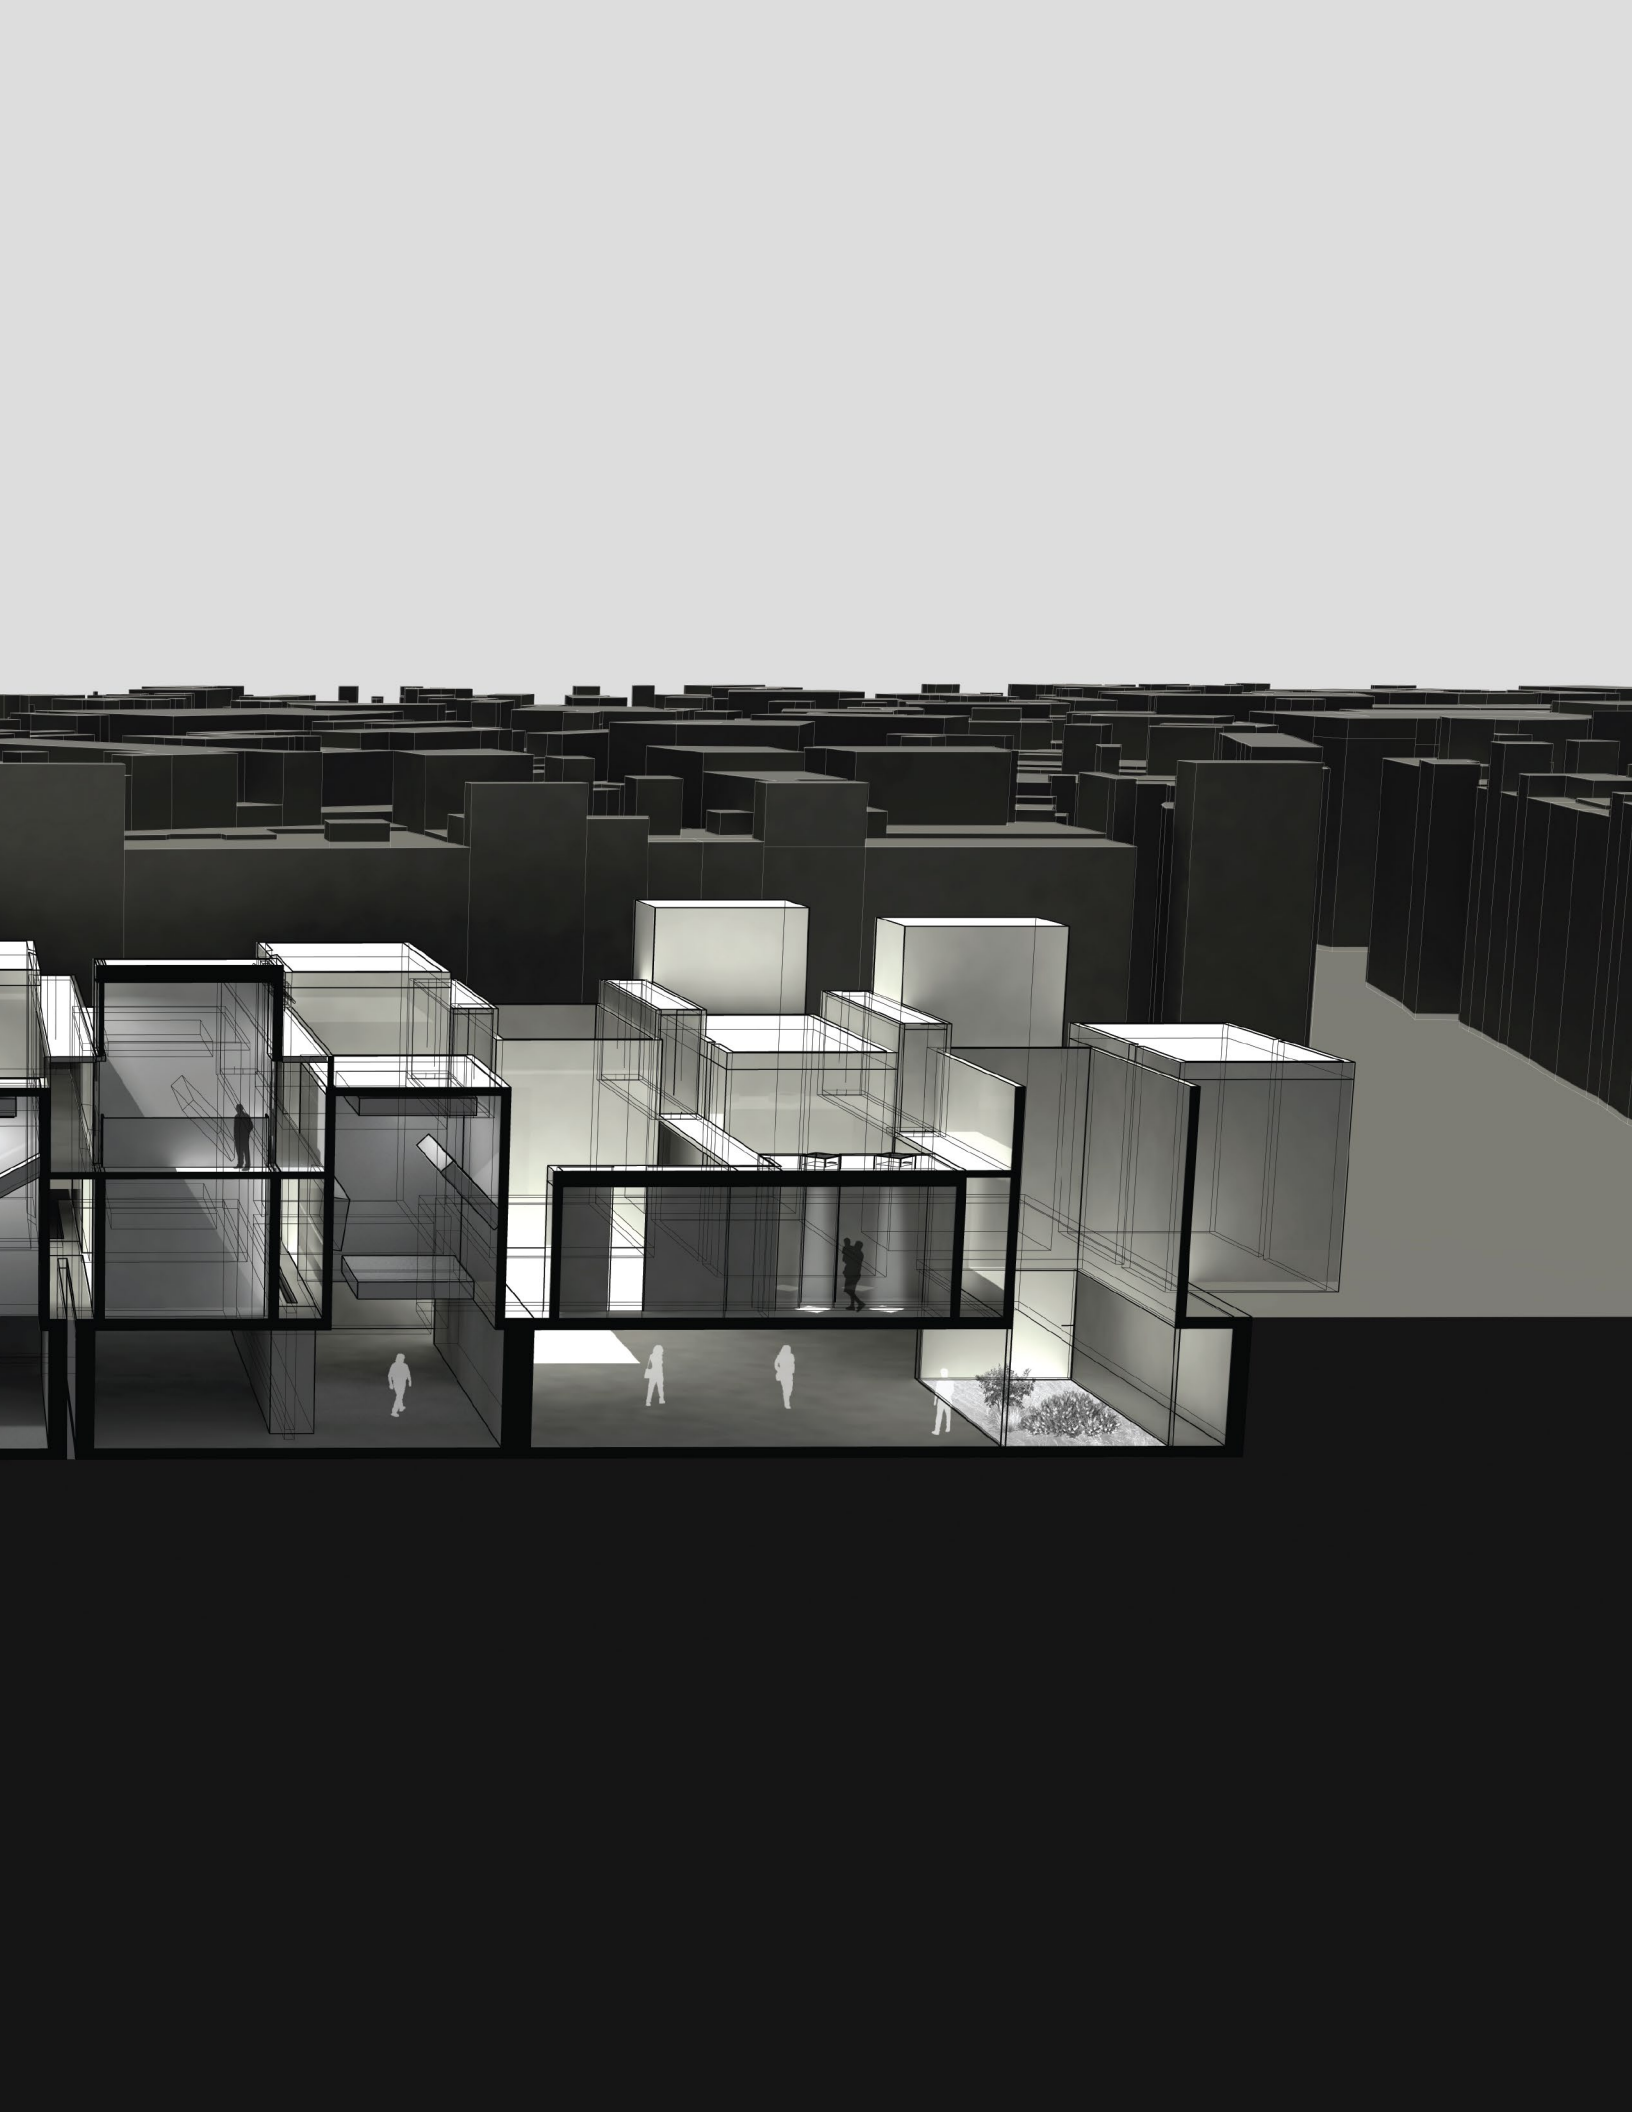

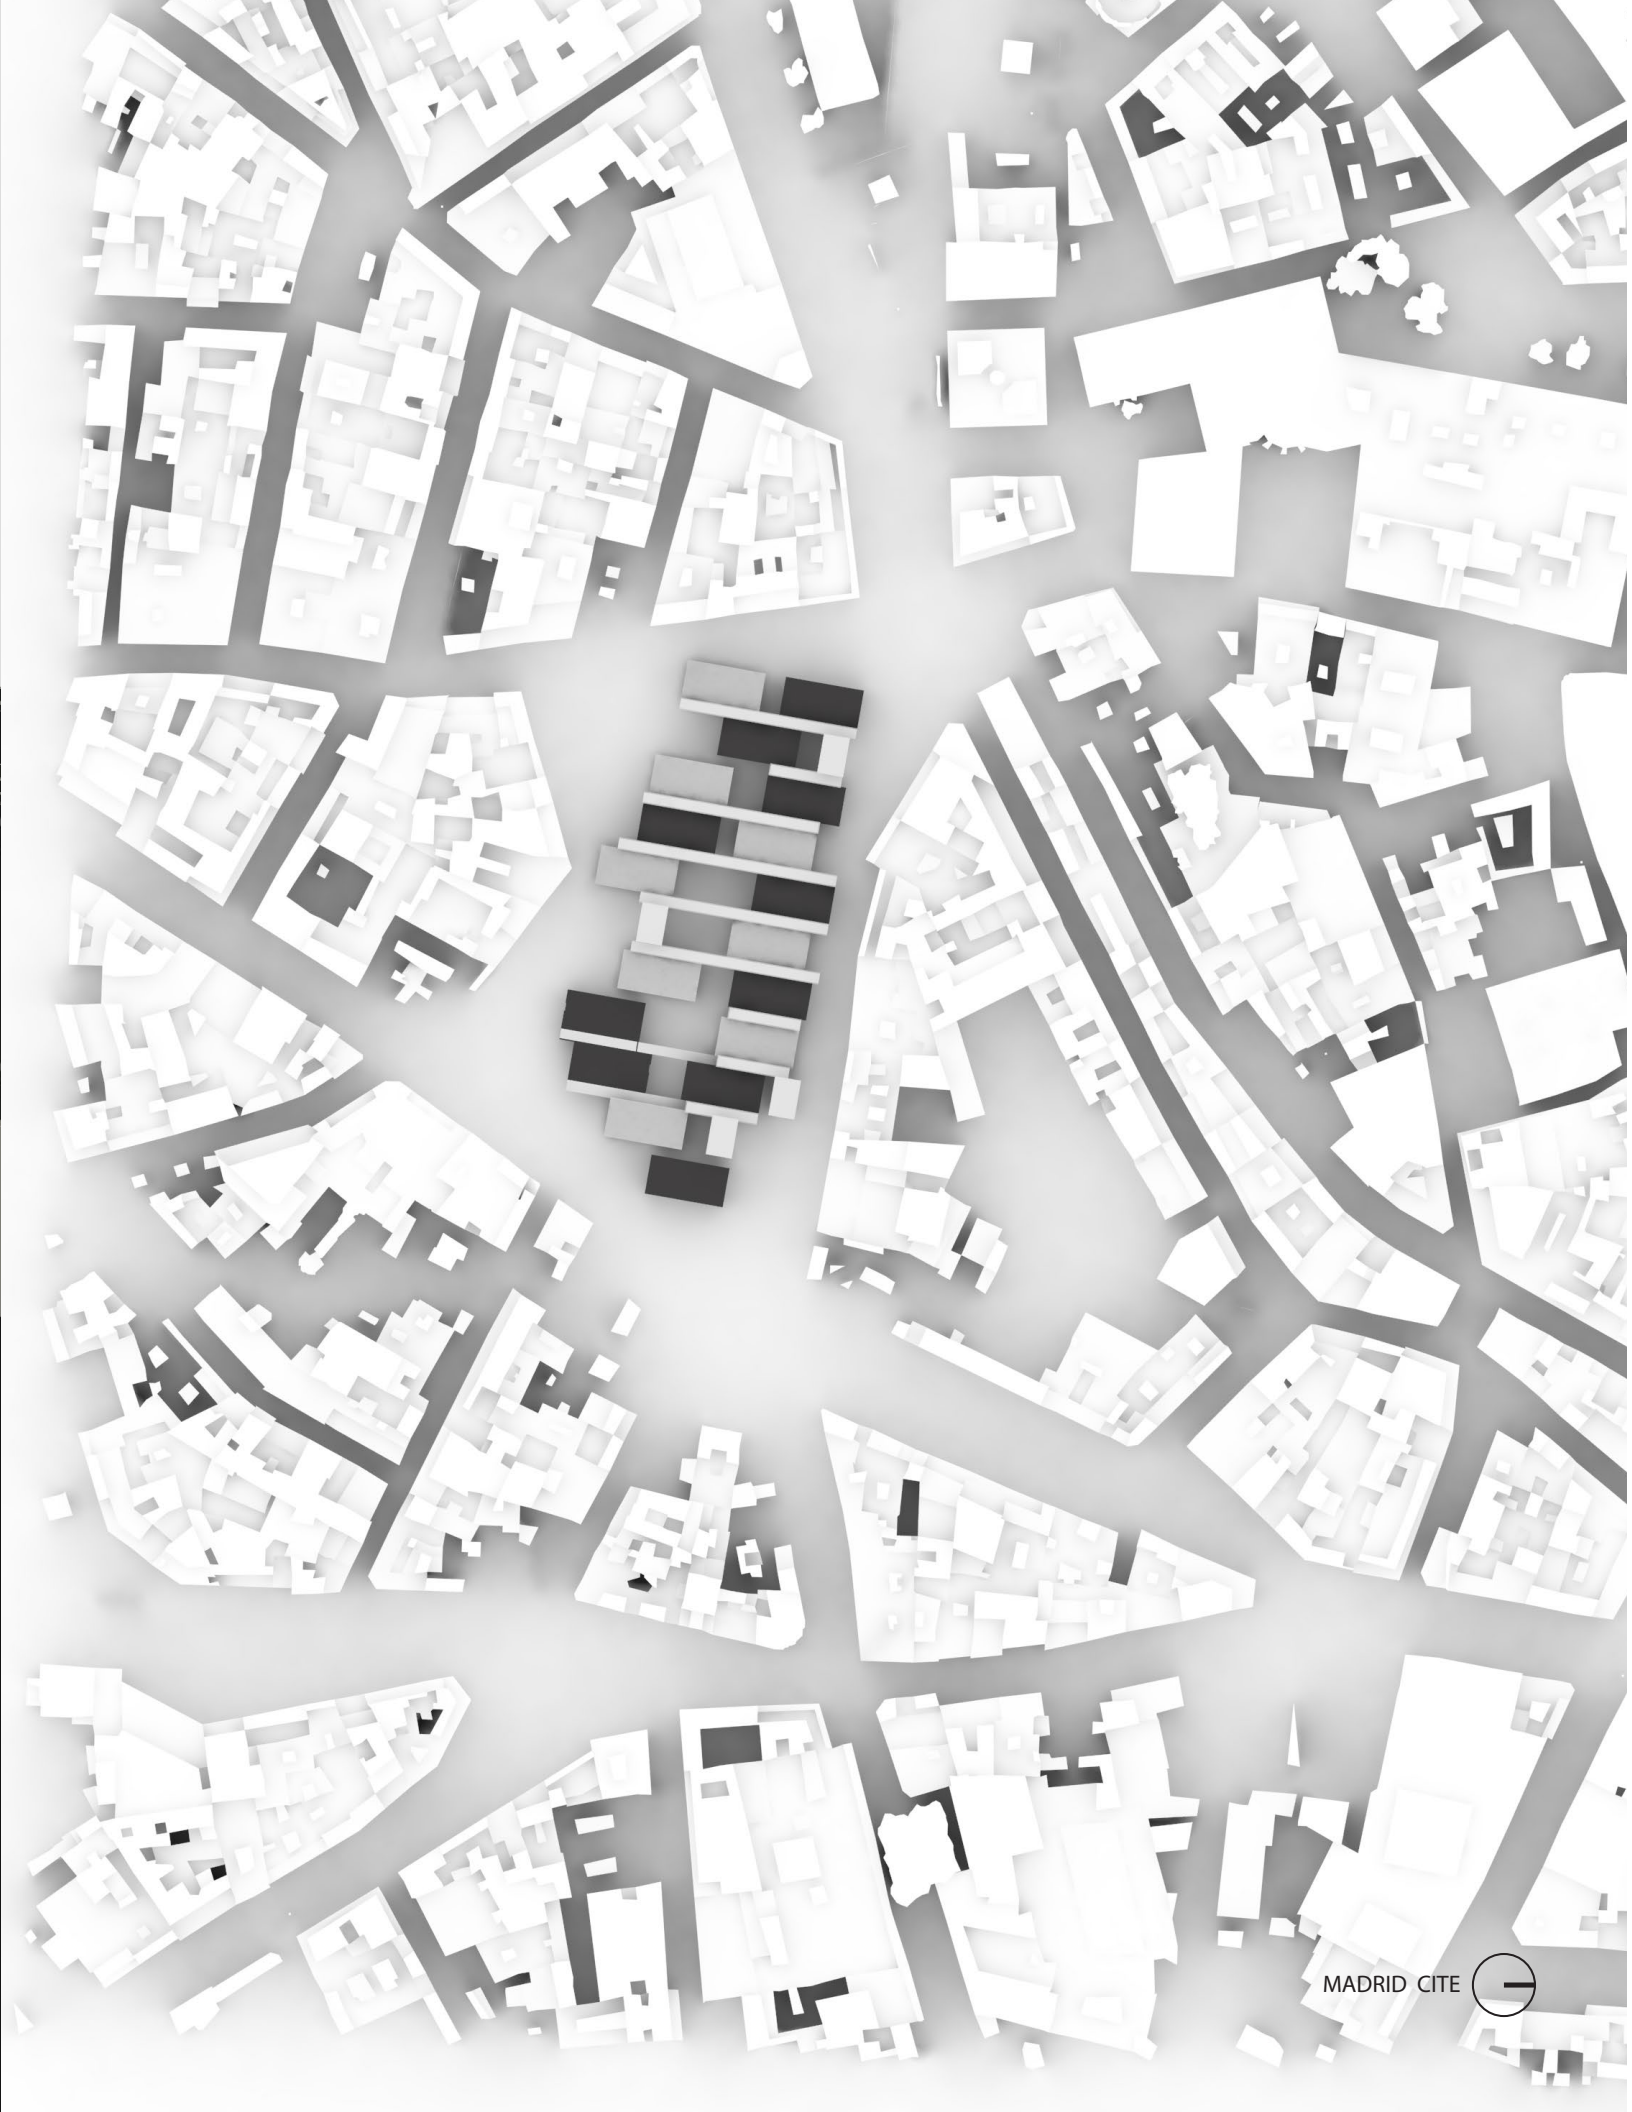

MADRID CITE

